"Countdown to College" offers late-night enrollment and registration at Palo Alto College

Alamo Colleges-Palo Alto College will host its third Countdown to College event on Wednesday, Jan. 8, 2014, to encourage individuals to attend classes in Spring 2014. College staff and faculty will be available from from 8 a.m. to midnight in the campus Performing Arts Center to help students complete the steps necessary for enrollment.

Interested individuals will be able to complete applications, take placement tests, meet with an academic advisor, get financial aid information, and pay tuition for Spring semester. H-E-B will be on site from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. providing bacterial meningitis shots. Games, prizes, music, and refreshments will be available, with a special viewing of the San Antonio Spurs game against the Dallas Mavericks at 6 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center Auditorium.

Classes for the Spring 2014 16-week semester begin on Tuesday, Jan. 21. To be eligible, students must have completed the application at www.applytexas.org by Dec. 31. Individuals who complete an application at Countdown to College will be able to register for the Start Two 14-week session that begins on Feb. 3.

Palo Alto College, one of the Alamo Colleges, is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award associate degrees. With nearly 9,000 students, the College offers short-term certificates and non-credit continuing education classes. The campus is located on the Southside of San Antonio at 1400 W. Villaret Blvd. at I-410 and Texas Hwy. 16 and online at alamo.edu/pac.
