Daysi Sanchez
Dental Assisting

"Your work is going to fill a large part of your life, and the only way to be truly satisfied is to do what you believe is great work. And the only way to do great work is to love what you do. If you haven't found it yet, keep looking. Don't settle."

—Steve Jobs

Biography

Daysi Sanchez was born in Peru and moved to San Antonio seven years ago. She is married and blessed with three marvelous children. Her family is the motor in her life, each step and each goal accomplished wouldn't be possible without the help of her husband and children.

Daysi believes that all things are easy and possible if they are accompanied with patience, love, and desire. Daysi loves spending time with her family and keeps busy with her children's activities. She is happy that she has the privilege to be with her family during these unforgettable moments in their life.

She is active in the PTA and also a volunteers as a member of Calvary Chapel Church where she helps the community by gathering clothes and food for families in need. Daysi completed her practicum in a geriatric dental office and realized through this experience that there is a great need to help our elders.

Daysi is excited to accomplish her dream of graduating so that her children can see that it is never too late to start again. She hopes that this will show her children that difficult challenges are not impossible.
