ALAMO COLLEGES DISTRICT
Palo Alto College

UTRio Grande Valley

The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley, which ranks 1st in Texas for awarding the most undergraduate degrees to Hispanics, will be on campus to recruit Palo Alto College students and to award five on-the-spot, full-ride scholarships.

Thursday, Nov. 15, 2018 | 9 - 11:30 a.m.
Student Center Room 130

Bring your transcript!

SCHOLARSHIP INFO:

- Includes tuition and fees, room and board
- Renewable for 2 years
- Must apply and be admitted to UTRGV by Feb. 1, 2019
- Total award value up to $37,000
- Transfer from Palo Alto College with at least 30 hours
- GPA must be 3.25 or higher
- Enroll full time

UTRGV

HIGH QUALITY | TRANSFORMING | AFFORDABLE

BEST IN TEXAS RANKINGS by BestColleges.com

	University	Average Tuition and Fees
1st	UT AUSTIN	$10,092
2nd	RICE	$47,345
3rd	TEXAS A&M	$9,882
4th	UTRGV	$7,587
5th	UT DALLAS	$12,162

1st
among Texas universities for the performance of our first-generation students (9th nationally).

1st
among all Texas universities for social mobility (23rd nationally).

2nd
among all Texas universities for the performance of our Pell Grant students (15th nationally).

1st
among Texas institutions for awarding the most undergraduate 4-year degrees to Hispanics (2nd nationally).

1st
among Texas institutions for awarding the most biology and biomedical sciences bachelor's degrees to Hispanics (2nd nationally).

TOP 10
producer of Hispanic physicists and engineers in the United States.

Sources: Washington Monthly and Hispanic Association of Colleges & Universities

For more information, please contact Krsytal Marroquin at (956) 665-5390 or krystal.marroquin01@utrgv.edu.