ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Digital Media Technology Associate of Applied Science degree plan focuses on three areas of concentration: Web/graphic design, interactive media design, and instructional design.

The Digital Media program is designed for individuals wanting to obtain entry level, continuing education, and advanced skills in the following areas: web & graphic and interface design best practices, HTML, CSS, JavaScripting, 508 compliance, JQuery, Mobile technology, Content Management Systems, Adobe Creative Suite, social media applications, SCORM compliance and much more.

Interactive Media player
By: Rob Hillis, NVC Student

Interactive Media player
By: Ryan Wendorf, NVC Student

ADMISSIONS

We have an open-door admissions policy to ensure that every person has the opportunity to get a college education.

TYPES OF AWARDS OFFERED

Associate of Applied Science (AAS)
Certificate
Marketable Skills Award
Enhanced & Advanced Skills Award
Occupational profiles indicate 25.7% growth for Multimedia and Web Developers by the year 2022 in the Alamo Region. Estimated average hourly wage is $29.16*.

* Note: Variations should be expected.

CAREERS AVAILABLE

The following titles are examples of careers associated with this program but not limited to:

- Front-end Web Developer
- Multimedia Specialist
- Social Media Designer
- eLearning Specialist
- Web Application Designer
- Marketing Specialist

Application Interface Design
By: Tim Cain, NVC Student
Career and Technical programs are created by faculty and industry professionals to ensure curriculum and training are aligned with current industry practices and trends. All workforce programs are designed to be completed in two years or less allowing graduates to begin their career immediately.

WHY NORTHWEST VISTA COLLEGE?

For additional information please contact the Program Coordinator:

Viviane Marioneaux
(210) 486-4685
vmarioneaux@alamo.edu