Back by popular demand, this learning community is a lively and entertaining way to complete two core requirements in Government and the Social Sciences!

Real world case studies will be used to explore how government responds to relevant social problems.

Guaranteed to be fun and inspiring as you explore such issues as inequality, war, and terrorism.

The Learning Communities at Northwest Vista College are designed to offer you a unique college experience and help you develop dynamic skills needed for college success and graduation.

When you join a learning community you will have an opportunity to spend time with the same group of peers throughout the semester and develop a deeper understanding of course materials.

This enables you to form new relationships and study groups with other students sharing your same experiences and coursework!

Enroll early to secure a seat!
