

Leona D. Tatum, M. Div., is a Christian pastor, student, and entrepreneur. Rev. Tatum serves as the Senior Pastor for Four Winds Christian Church, which she co-founded with her husband in 2013 in San Antonio, Texas. She is also the president and co-founder of Four Winds Christian Ministries, Inc., dedicated to training and equipping ministers and leaders in the Christian faith.

Rev. Tatum earned her Masters of Divinity in Biblical Studies from Brite Divinity School at Texas Christian University in 2002. She is currently completing her Doctorate of Ministry degree from Trinity Theological College and Seminary in Newburg, Ind., and concurrently working a master's degree in Government from Regent University in Virginia Beach, Va. She also earned MA of Law and MBA degrees from Regent University in 2018 and 2019, respectively. She considers herself a lifelong student and is currently preparing to take the LSAT in order to enter law school in 2023.

Rev. Tatum recently left the corporate world to launch Agape Business and Life Solutions, PLLC. Through her business, Rev. Tatum offers conflict resolutions, financial coaching, life coaching, and mediation services for individuals and businesses.

Rev. Tatum has been married to her husband, Richard A. Tatum I, for 36 years. They have three adult children and eight grandchildren.