Explore Paris City of Love and Light

Students will be immersed in world-renowned museums, architecture, and historic monuments. Our exploration will include the Louvre and D’Orsay museums. We will also explore architectural feats – Notre Dame, Arc de Triomphe, and the iconic Eiffel Tower! Paris offers discovery in culture and design for students to promote their personal growth, social values, and aesthetics.

PROGRAM DATE: June 4-19

PROGRAM SITE: France

COURSES: Art Appreciation (ARTS 1301) and Introduction to Human Sexuality (PSYC 2306)

ACADEMIC INFORMATION: Students are required to take two courses and will receive six hours of credit upon successful completion of the program.

PARTICIPATION REQUIREMENTS: 2.0 GPA and 12 cumulative academic credits. Alamo Colleges expects study abroad participants to perform academically at standards commensurate with on-campus performance. This includes attending class, taking exams, reading required materials, completing homework, etc. If students' GPA drops below a 2.0 before they study abroad, they will not be allowed to participate in the program.

FACULTY LEADERS:
Professor Suzanna Borawski will be the primary lead faculty for Introduction to Human Sexuality (PSYC 2306). Professor Borawski has taught at San Antonio College for 19 years. She has traveled throughout Europe and has also participated in study abroad to Mexico and France. She has led the Paris, France Study Abroad Program in the summer of 2017. Contact: sborawski@alamo.edu

Professor Monica Camero will be the co-leader and will teach Art Appreciation (ARTS 1301). Ms. Camero is an instructor at Northeast Lakeview and has twenty years of teaching experience. She has traveled to Paris on several occasions. Her international travels have included various other countries in Europe and Asia. She has led the Paris, France Study Abroad Program in the summer of 2017. Contact: mcamero@alamo.edu

PASSPORT: A valid passport is required for travel. You can visit travel.state.gov/passport for additional information. Passports are due to the International Programs Office by February 15, 2019.
