

TAMLA PHILLIPS, LMSW

Tamlaphillips@yahoo.com

Biography

Tamla is a Licensed Masters Social Worker (LMSW) with The Center for Health Care Services. She works with adults that are in the Community Reintegration Program offers mentally ill offenders treatment as an alternative to incarceration. CRP is designed to identify and divert offenders with mental health issues from incarceration to treatment.

Tamla has over four years of experience in a variety of settings with diverse clients, including both long-term and brief interventions.

Tamla is Licensed Masters Social Worker (LMSW) in the state of Texas. Tamla graduated from the University of Texas at San Antonio with a bachelor's degree in Accounting. She has a Master's Degree in Social Work. Tamla is also continuously seeking to gain more skills and broaden her education. Tamla is seeking her Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW) to provide therapy to individuals and families.

Tamla believes that change happens when people draw on their own strengths and realize their potential.

