

Elizabeth A. Haan

San Antonio College--NTC 314--210-486-0532--ehaan@alamo.edu

JOB OBJECTIVE: To be employed by a growing, technologically progressive college or school district as a technology instructor, technology integration specialist, technology trainer, or webmaster.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

2006-Present: San Antonio College, Instructor, Administrative Computer Technology

2011-Present: San Antonio College, Lead Coordinator, Administrative Computer Technology

1996-2004: San Antonio College, Adjunct Instructor

1997-2006: Jourdanton Independent School District Teacher/Technology Trainer

- Business Education, Technology Applications, and English teacher
- Technology Planning, Purchasing, Installation, Implementation, and Training
- District Webmaster
- Assistant Network Systems Administrator

1998-1999: University of Houston College of Technology Curriculum Reviewer - Reviewed and revised Curriculum Guides

1998-2002: University of Houston College of Technology Curriculum Writer Wrote Curriculum Guides for Business Education

1995-1997: Pleasanton High School Teacher

Designed curriculum for self paced credit recovery program (30+ courses)

Managed Novell network and CAI software

Taught credit recovery classes

1995-1999: San Antonio College Adjunct Faculty-taught technology classes

1978-1994: McLennan Community College, Waco, Texas.

Instructor of Office Administration and Computer Information Systems

Managed Novell network

Program Director 1987-1993

Curriculum development

Supervision

Technology/curriculum planning, purchasing, implementation, training

Budget

Academic Advising

Schedule of Classes

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND:

College: Baylor University, 1975

B.S. Degree in Education; First teaching field--Business; Second teaching field--English

Graduate: Baylor University, 1985

M.S. Degree in Education; Specialization--Educational Supervision & Curriculum