

2019 DISTINGUISHED GRADUATE

Alejandra Torres

Political Science

“Our greatest weakness lies in giving up. The most certain way to succeed is always to try just one more time.”

- Thomas Edison

Alejandra Torres began her journey at San Antonio College in the fall of 2015. She was born and raised in San Antonio where she grew up raising and training farm animals and riding horses. Alejandra is an Army ROTC cadet, an active member of the National Society of Leadership and Success, the Natural Sciences Club, and sub compartments within the Roadrunner Battalion. In addition, she has received the President’s and the Dean’s Honors for the past two years, the Harvey Najim Scholarship, and the San Antonio Education Partnership Scholarship.

She enjoys volunteering her time to give back to the community and volunteers with SnipSA as a veterinary assistant, in the International Committee in the San Antonio Stockshow & Rodeo, at the South Texas Blood and Tissue Center, and with the ASPCA Government Relations team as the Texas District Captain.

She plans to transfer to UTSA to seek a bachelor of science in microbiology degree and commission as a second lieutenant officer in the US Army. Her long-term goal is to become a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine and specialize in equine medicine.
