

ST. PHILIP'S COLLEGE

152ND COMMENCEMENT CEREMONY

ALAMODOME

MAY 22, 2025

Dear St. Philip's College Class of 2025,

On behalf of the faculty, staff, and administration of St. Philip's College, I congratulate you on your achievement!

You have shown that you value higher education, and you've worked hard to achieve success. Your graduation has an impact on your family, industry, and community.

Our mission is simply the success of our students. St. Philip's started as a church school for black girls who were the daughters and granddaughters of emancipated slaves. The school focused on cooking and sewing, and helped girls build leadership and marketable skills.

St. Philip's College, one of the oldest and most diverse community colleges in the nation, turned 127 years old on March 1, 2025. We are both a historically Black college and a Hispanic-Serving Institution.

Since 1898, we have moved from our original location in La Villita to the current location on San Antonio's Eastside with an additional campus at the old Kelly Field on Quintana Road. Today, we are a multi-campus community college with students pursuing a baccalaureate degree, associate degrees, certificates, and awards that lead to high-wage, high-demand careers in support of regional economic growth.

We are excited that we have over 18,000 enrolled students this year -- a record number -- and you are a part of that milestone. The Bachelor of Applied Technology in Cybersecurity, launched in Fall 2024, supports San Antonio's cyber hub, the second-largest nation. The first cohort will graduate in Fall 2025, but some of you are here today, completing with degrees and certificates that feed into the pathway to that achievement.

I commend you and applaud you for your persistence and completion. May you continue to serve as a role model and inspiration to your family and friends. Leave today's ceremony with the knowledge that you have gained the skills you now possess through hard work and perseverance, and proudly represent St. Philip's College.

My very best wishes in all your future endeavors.

Adena Williams Loston, Ph.D.
President

Artemisia Bowden, Holy Woman

Artemisia Bowden, a teacher and administrator at St. Philip's College for more than a half-century, received recognition by the Episcopal Church as a Holy Woman.

On June 30, 2015, at the 78th General Convention of the Episcopal Church, in Salt Lake City, the Church authorized adding the name of Dr. Artemisia Bowden to its liturgical calendar in "Holy Women, Holy Men: Celebrating the Saints." August 18 is her designated feast day.

Dr. Adena Williams Loston, President of St. Philip's College, said it was fitting the Episcopal Church recognized Bowden's service. "Miss Bowden came to San Antonio as a very young person, with no relatives here or network. She had to establish herself in a new community, but she had the church which brought her here," Loston said. "The only strong relationship she had was with the church."

A graduate of St. Augustine Normal School in Raleigh, North Carolina, Bowden, daughter of a former slave, taught for two years in North Carolina before becoming principal of St. Philip's. "Our highest ambition is to send from our institution true, God-fearing women, who are not ashamed of the truth and whose characters are spotless," Bowden wrote in a 1904 report on St. Philip's.

Loston said Bowden deserves the title "Savior of St. Philip's" because she found ways to keep the school open after the Episcopal Church withdrew its financial support. "To raise funds, she took a quartet of singing students around the country, she bartered chickens and eggs, she discontinued taking a salary, and brought her relatives to teach at no cost," Loston said.

Bowden earned a bachelor's degree from St. Augustine College in 1935 and did graduate work at Columbia University and the New York School of Social Work. She received honorary degrees from Wiley and Tillotson Colleges. She retired in 1954.

Today, Bowden is remembered through the Bowden Eye Care & Health Institute, open through the University of the Incarnate Word, and Bowden Academy in SAISD. St. Philip's College has a Bowden Legacy Building, Saint Artemisia Bowden Building, and Artemisia's, the classroom-restaurant that is part of the Tourism, Hospitality and Culinary Arts Department.

Artemisia Bowden was named President Emeritus, St. Philip's College, by Alamo Colleges Board of Trustees on September 15, 2015.

Historical Sketch of St. Philip's College

Bishop James Steptoe Johnston of the West Texas Diocese, the son of a former slave owner, founded St. Philip's Episcopal Church in 1895. The church established on March 1, 1898, a sewing class for black girls with fewer than 20 students in a house located in the area known today as the La Villita Historical Arts Village in downtown San Antonio. The bishop sought to elevate the sewing class to a grammar school and brought Artemisia Bowden, a teacher and daughter of emancipated slaves, to assume leadership of the school in 1902.

Under the direction of Miss Bowden, over the ensuing 52 years, St. Philip's underwent monumental transformation, evolving from a parochial day school to an industrial school to a vocational school to a two-year college offering a diverse curriculum. Changes included a move in 1917 from the school's original site to a new location just east of downtown, and the creation of San Antonio Union Junior College District through an affiliation with San Antonio College and the San Antonio Independent School District in 1942. This marked the end of the college's era as a private institution. St. Philip's College became an accredited institution in 1951.

Today, St. Philip's College is a comprehensive multi-campus institution of the Alamo Colleges District, joining four other colleges - San Antonio

College, Palo Alto College, Northwest Vista College and Northeast Lakeview College - in meeting the educational needs of the region's growing and diverse communities.

St. Philip's College is both a Historically Black College and Hispanic Serving Institution. With an enrollment of more than 18,000 credit students, St. Philip's is among the oldest and most diverse community colleges in the nation.

In December 2023, St. Philip's College was approved to offer its first baccalaureate degree -- Bachelor of Applied Technology in Cybersecurity. This degree supports San Antonio's cyber hub, the second-largest concentration of cybersecurity jobs in the United States. The baccalaureate degree was the fulfillment of Artemisia Bowden's dream for the institution.

Dr. Adena Williams Loston serves as the 14th President of St. Philip's College. She assumed the reins on March 1, 2007, on the occasion of St. Philip's 109th anniversary. Under her leadership, the college has more than doubled in size.

Suzanne MeeganInvocation*

Suzanne Meegan is graduating with an Associate of Applied Science, pre-majoring in Culinary Arts. Her love for the kitchen began in childhood, inspired by her grandmother, who introduced her to cooking and baking. For Suzanne, the kitchen is a safe space where she can create and share joy through her food.

During her time at St. Philip's, Suzanne earned a valuable internship at Nadler's Bakery. Upon completing her degree, she will join their team full-time, which is a significant step toward her goal of becoming a pastry chef.

Suzanne is also a Strada HBCU Scholar, a prestigious honor awarded to just five students at the college. This experience, along with mentorship from Randall Dawson, Vice President of Student Success, has shaped her path to success. After graduation, she will pursue a Bachelor's in Hospitality and Event Management at UTSA.

Paul JudkinsIntroduction of Commencement Speaker*

Paul Judkins is graduating with an Associate of Science, pre-majoring in Mechanical Engineering. He chose this path for its blend of hands-on mechanics and technical design, including skills like AutoCAD, a popular computer-aided design software, which fueled his passion for innovative problem-solving.

Paul's academic journey has been supported by SPC's strong STEM programs and dedicated tutors, who helped him navigate challenging math courses. His motivation is driven by a desire to create meaningful work, inspired by his parents, his SPC mentor Dr. Saint Hubert, and his girlfriend, whose encouragement has been a guiding force.

As a Project SURE Scholar, he gained invaluable experience, including a NASA internship and volunteering at events at the college. Paul aims to build a meaningful engineering career in San Antonio, with plans to continue his education as his career progresses.

Christopher SaucedoCommencement Address*

Christopher Saucedo is graduating with an Associate of Arts, pre-majoring in Psychology. Inspired by his experiences as a single father to an autistic son, he is committed to advocating for neurodiverse individuals, especially in higher education. His goal is to pursue a PhD in neuropsychology to help break down the barriers that hinder neurodiverse individuals from succeeding.

Christopher initially enrolled at SPC for the Occupational Therapy Assistant program but soon shifted to psychology, driven by his desire to understand the brain and help those facing unique challenges. His achievements include being named a Presidential Scholar, Coalition for Regenerative Ecological Agriculture (CREA) Fellow with Mexican American Studies, Intercollegiate Civil Disagreement Partnership (ICDP) Fellow with Harvard University, and a Hispanic Serving Institute American Heart Association Scholar.

After graduation, Christopher plans to transfer to UTSA to continue his studies and eventually open nonprofits offering free services for neurodiverse children.

Justin NavarroBenediction*

Justin Navarro is graduating with an Associate of Applied Science, pre-majoring in Aircraft Maintenance Powerplant. During High School, he was enrolled in Alamo Academies, a partner of St. Philip's College, where he developed a love for the aviation maintenance program.

Motivated to advance his career, Justin earned his Pilot and Drone Licenses through the Federal Aviation Administration and attended numerous aviation conferences. His involvement in organizations like the Commemorative Air Force, Boeing Pilots Association, and Latino Pilots Association provided valuable networking and mentorship opportunities, shaping his career path. These experiences allowed him to connect with mentors and colleagues who have been instrumental in his career and educational development.

Justin is currently employed at Boeing, where he works on fighter jets. Justin is also pursuing a Bachelor's in Aviation from Liberty University, with a focus on flight training and pilot development.

2025 HONORARY BACHELOR OF APPLIED TECHNOLOGY IN CYBERSECURITY DEGREE RON NIRENBERG, SAN ANTONIO MAYOR

Ron Nirenberg is the Mayor of San Antonio, America's seventh-largest city and one of its fastest-growing urban centers. First elected in 2017, Mayor Nirenberg was re-elected to a fourth term in May 2023. A proven leader committed to equity, civic engagement, and environmental stewardship, he has guided San Antonio through transformative growth while upholding the values of justice, opportunity, and community.

Mayor Nirenberg is the first San Antonio mayor of Asian Pacific Islander descent. His mother is Filipino, and his paternal grandparents were Eastern European immigrants who arrived through Ellis Island. These multicultural roots shaped his inclusive worldview and his dedication to public service.

Under his leadership, the city has implemented an equity-based budgeting framework to address long-standing socioeconomic disparities, reduce poverty, and improve public health. He has prioritized key infrastructure and workforce investments to support the city's rapid development, including the successful launch of SA Ready to Work in 2020, a workforce development initiative approved by 77% of voters and funded without a tax increase.

A passionate advocate for sustainable growth, Mayor Nirenberg has led bold climate initiatives, including the city's Climate Action and Adaptation Plan adopted in 2019. His leadership earned him a place on the Climate Mayors Steering Committee and recognition by Grist as one of the Grist 50 in 2020 for his efforts on climate change.

Mayor Nirenberg has also championed affordable housing, creating the Mayor's Housing Policy Task Force in 2017, whose recommendations were adopted by the City Council the following year. In 2020, he helped secure long-term funding for the Edwards Aquifer Protection Program, a vital environmental resource.

A former City Councilman for District 8, Nirenberg previously worked to preserve the Bracken Bat Cave and promote regional planning and smart city development. Beyond local politics, he served as Chairman of Sister Cities International, deepening San Antonio's relationships with cities around the globe.

Before public service, Nirenberg was a small-business founder, radio station general manager, and civic engagement leader at the Annenberg Public Policy Center. He holds degrees from Trinity University and the University of Pennsylvania, graduating with highest honors.

Mayor Nirenberg lives in San Antonio with his wife, First Lady Erika Prosper, and their son, Jonah.

2025 HONORARY ASSOCIATE OF ARTS DEGREE DR. MARIE PANNELL THURSTON

Marie Pannell Thurston has traveled an extraordinary path from the segregated streets of Lynchburg, Virginia, to the halls of academia and authorship. Born during the Great Depression, she was the middle child of seven, raised in a loving home where her parents, despite having only fifth-grade educations, instilled in their children the importance of higher learning. That foundation of encouragement led Thurston to graduate from a historically Black junior college in Lynchburg, followed by Virginia State College in Petersburg, Virginia.

She later married Dr. Charles S. Thurston, a fellow Virginia State alumnus. As a military family, the Thurstons moved frequently across the United States and Europe, raising four accomplished daughters—a physician, a college dean, a librarian, and an education specialist with the Federal Reserve Bank. Despite the demands of motherhood and frequent relocations, Thurston pursued her education with determination, earning a master’s degree from the University of Michigan and another from the University of Texas at San Antonio—all while working full-time.

Thurston’s commitment to service extended beyond family and education. She remained deeply involved in her church and community, serving on various boards and receiving numerous awards for her contributions. Thurston reignited her academic pursuits in San Antonio, where the family eventually settled after her husband’s military retirement. At age 71, she earned a PhD in Education with a concentration in Organizational Leadership from the University of the Incarnate Word. Her lifelong passion for history and storytelling culminated in publishing her first book at age 81, St. Philip’s College: A Point of Pride on San Antonio’s Eastside, released by Texas A&M University Press.

The book chronicles the powerful legacy of St. Philip’s College, the only college in the nation designated both a Historically Black and Hispanic Serving Institution. Drawing on archival research and oral histories, Thurston captures the story of its founding by the Episcopal Church in 1898 and the enduring legacy of trailblazing leaders like Artemisia Bowden and her successors. Her work reflects a personal connection and admiration for these women, whose resilience and leadership echo Thurston’s own journey.

As the past coordinator of the St. Philip’s College’s Oral History Project, Marie Pannell Thurston has helped preserve and share the heart of a community and its beloved institution—one built, as she says, by love, sacrifice, and unshakable pride.

- * Cum Laude – 3.5–3.74

ACADEMIC COSTUME AND REGALIA

Academic gowns represent a tradition which comes down from the universities of the Middle Ages. At that time, they were a common form of dress for faculty and students. The usual color for academic gowns is black, but the official color of the St. Philip's College gown is blue. The bachelor's gown has long sleeves; the master's gown has slits in the elbows of the sleeves; and the doctor's gown is trimmed with velvet bands. Caps, originally round, later became square mortarboards. The hoods once served as cowls which could be slipped over the head for warmth. Hoods are lined with colors of the college or university from which the wearer received his/her degree. The trimming or color of the hood designates the degree.

PRESIDENTIAL MEDALLION

The presidential medallion is worn by the President of the College/University at all commencement ceremonies as a sign of honor and regard for the institution's academic leadership. The medallion is imprinted with the official seal of St. Philip's College, and is inscribed with the former presidents of the institution and their tenures.

MACE AND GONFALON

Historically, the Mace is a symbol of authority dating from medieval times when knights carried them during processions leading the way before their kings or other dignitaries. As the tradition grew, the Mace became a ceremonial symbol of peaceful leadership, and maces were embellished with jewels and metals. Today, a college/university's mace represents a symbol of authority and the mace bearer leads the ceremonial procession and is carried before the president or chancellor and platform-party dignitaries during commencement and inaugural and other academic ceremonial processions.

The commencement Gonfalon is a banner which hangs from a cross pole, bearing the school colors, seal, and division name. It signifies the different divisions within St. Philip's College. The Gonfalons lead the student processional.
