THE WILDCAT WAY: HSP NEWSLETTER

WELCOME DUAL CREDIT WILDCATS!

We're thrilled to kick off a new semester and welcome both new and returning students to The Wildcat Way Monthly Newsletter — your go-to source for exciting updates, resources, and opportunities within the Dual Credit Program and the Northwest Vista College (NVC) campus.

This Fall semester, we have over 7,400 students participating in our Dual Credit Program, with more than 2,250 Seniors on track to graduate high school with 15 or more college credit hours from NVC — an incredible milestone! By choosing to earn college credits now, you're taking bold steps toward a brighter future, and we're here to support you every step of the way.

This newsletter will provide important program updates, academic support services, and insights into the many degree pathways available through the Alamo Colleges District.

Congratulations on starting (or continuing) your college journey — your future starts now, and it starts strong. Let's make this semester one to remember!

SPOTLIGHTING:

CYBERSECURITY CERTIFICATIONS

Congrats to our 30 Boerne ISD high school students who recently earned their Occupational Skills Award (OSA) in cybersecurity through dual credit courses and technical training with Northwest Vista College. The P-TECH Early College Program students were honored at a recognition ceremony attended by families, faculty, and NVC officials. This event also served as an orientation for incoming freshmen, highlighting the opportunity to graduate with both a high school diploma and college credentials.
