

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK

NVC Peace Center and Learning to Lead mgarcia1295@alamo.edu

NOVEMBER

17

Monday, 12:30pm - 1:30pm
(RLC) Redbud Learning Center 118

NVC Sounds of the World: Global Music Exploration

Take your ears on a journey around the globe! Visit our Listening Lounge and explore the incredible range of international music available through the library's streaming database, Naxos Music Library. Come experience how music connects us all.

NOVEMBER

18

Tuesday,
(LOH) Live Oak Hall 229 10:00am - 11:30am

My Global Journey: From Blog to Junk Journal

life feeling too connected to technology? maybe moving too fast? come in for a day of junk journaling and exploring the different mediums to expressing your daily life

(MZH) Manzanillo Hall 203 12:30pm and 3:30pm Viewings

Walk-Out Documentary Viewing: HEB foundation

In 1968, hundreds of students at Edgewood High School in San Antonio, Texas, walked out of class. Their walkout sparked one of the most important legal battles in US public History, challenging how Texas and the nation fund its schools.

NOVEMBER

19

Wednesday, 11:00am and 12:30pm
(LOH) Live Oak Hall 229

Hunger Banquet

Experience the realities of global inequality in this immersive, eye-opening event. Attendees will take on new perspectives as they navigate a world where access to resources is anything but equal. Through storytelling and discussion, explore how hunger impacts lives—and how we can work together for change.

NOVEMBER

20

Thursday, 9:30am
(LOH)Live Oak Hall 229

Immersive Sound Bath: Global Harmonies

Relax and rejuvenate in this guided sound experience that blends instruments, tones, and traditions from cultures around the world. This session will transport you through soundscaped that calm the mind and nourish the spirit.

11:00am - 2:00pm (LOH)Live Oak Hall 229

Flavors of the World

Savor the sights, smells, and tastes of global cuisine! Sample an array of international dishes prepared with love and tradition. Learn about the stories, customs, and cultural significance behind every flavor. This community food fair celebrates unity through diversity—one bite at a time!

NOVEMBER

21

Friday, Zoom 10:30am - 11:45am

Global Perspectives on Peace: Stories of Hope in a Divided World

Join international speakers, students, and community leaders as they share their personal journeys of building bridges across cultural and ideological divides. Together, explore how hope, empathy, and understanding can foster peace—locally and globally.