

Community-Based Federal Work-Study Program

Alyssa
Animal Shelter Assistant
Career Goal: Veterinarian

To better prepare students for careers and to increase a sense of social responsibility, Alamo Colleges District connects work-study eligible students with meaningful employment opportunities with area non-profit, educational and governmental agencies. Students work up to 19 hours per week and are paid $9.00 per hour (through federal funds).

As a partner agency with Alamo Colleges District, agencies

1. Submit brief job descriptions for the positions desired
2. Review resumes and interview selected student(s)
3. Offer the student(s) a position
4. Negotiate the work schedule with the student(s)

Alamo Colleges District will

1. Refer qualified students for employment consideration
2. Conduct a basic criminal background check on students
3. Manage all HR and payroll matters
4. Fund the students' wages through awarded federal funds

Jonathan
Archival Research Head
Career Goal: Social Entrepreneur

Join Alamo Colleges District as a partner in Community-Based Federal Work-Study Program which provides college students career-relevant work experience while providing quality service to the community.

Gabby
Habitat Conservation Assistant
Career Goal: Wildlife Biologist

Martha L. Trevino, Ph.D.
Director
Office of Experiential Learning
210.486.5900
m.trevino114@alamo.edu