

H.1.2.3 (Procedure) Bully Free Workplace and Campuses

Responsible Department: Title IX/VII/ADA/504 Coordinator

Board Adoption: 4-26-16

Last Board Action: 4-26-16

This procedure applies to all students and all employees, including supervisors, managers, administrators, faculty as well as contractors and employees of contractors. It defines bullying and provides examples of behavior that would be a violation of the “Respect for All” value stated in Alamo Colleges Policy A.1.3 (College District Vision, Mission, Values and Goals) and the Alamo Colleges Civil Rights Policy H.1.2 Civil Rights Discrimination, Harassment and Retaliation. Procedures H.1.2.1, Civil Rights Complaint and Resolution, and H.1.2.2, Civil Rights Complaint Appeal, define the processes for reporting, investigating and administering discipline or sanctions for instances of bullying.

Objective

Alamo Colleges strives to create a workplace that is optimal for learning and work. The purpose of this procedure is to communicate to all students and all employees, including supervisors, managers, administrators, faculty, contractors and employees of contractors, that the Alamo Colleges will not in any instance tolerate bullying behavior or lack respect or disrespect. Any employee found in violation of this policy will be disciplined, up to and including termination, expulsion or, in the case of contracts, cancellation of contract. Any student who is found in violation will be processed through the student code of conduct and may be subject to sanctions up to and including suspension, academic expulsion, and expulsion from presence at any of the Alamo Colleges.

Definition

Alamo Colleges defines bullying as repeated and/or severe aggressive behavior, either direct or indirect, whether verbal, physical or otherwise, conducted by one or more persons against another or others, at the place of work or on campus and/or in the course of employment, education or student activities which is likely to intimidate or hurt, control or diminish another person whether or not on the basis of protected criteria. Behavior demonstrating or communicating a lack of respect or disrespect may or may not be bullying, but nonetheless such behavior violates Alamo College’s Code of Ethics, which clearly states that all employees will be treated with dignity and respect, and Policy A.1.3, stating the College District’s shared value of “Respect for All.” Bullying is a violation of the Texas Education Code and Alamo Colleges Policy whether or not the victim is a member of a protected class. This procedure and policy extends to cyberbullying which is bullying that takes place using electronic technology. This policy and procedure extends to conduct and behavior that is not otherwise protected by law.

Examples

The effect of the behavior of bullying on the individual is important. Alamo Colleges considers the following types of behavior examples of bullying:

- Verbal bullying: Slandering, ridiculing or maligning a person or his or her family; persistent name calling that is hurtful, threatening, insulting or humiliating; using a person as butt of jokes; abusive and offensive remarks.
