This procedure complies with Subchapter E-3 in Chapter 51 in the Texas Education Code, which requires a policy and protocol for reporting and responding to reports of sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, and stalking by students and employees. This procedure overlaps in part the procedure under “federal law” implementing Title IX regulations which also cover sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, and stalking. This procedure establishes the protocol for Alamo Colleges District required by Subchapter E-3 for students and employees.

I. Mission Statement.

The College District and its Colleges prohibit sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, and stalking by students and employees, require the reporting of such conduct, and are committed to responding to reports, as set forth in this procedure. The College District and its Colleges support the following:

- (a) The importance of a victim of sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, or stalking going to a hospital for treatment and preservation of evidence, if applicable, as soon as practicable after the incident;
- (b) The right of a victim of sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, or stalking to report the incident to the College District and Colleges and to receive a prompt and equitable resolution of the report; and
- (c) The right of a victim of a crime to choose whether to report the crime to law enforcement, to be assisted by the College District or a College in reporting the crime to law enforcement, or to decline to report the crime to law enforcement.

II. Definitions of Prohibited Conduct.

1. “Dating violence” has the meaning assigned in the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), 34 U.S.C. §12291(a), as referenced in the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (“Clery Act”), 20 U.S.C. §1092(f)(6)(A)(v). Tex. Educ. Code §51.281(2). Under the VAWA, “dating violence” means violence committed by a person:

- (a) who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and
- (b) where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors: (i) the length of the relationship; (ii) the type of relationship; and (iii) the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. (34 U.S.C. §12291(a)(10)).
