

Quality Texas Foundation Site Visit Team

Closing Meeting
January 15, 2014

Purpose of the Site Visit

- Verify and Clarify Uncertain Points in the application
- Investigate Areas Most Difficult to Understand from the Limited Size of Application
  - Deployment
  - Integration
  - Learning
- Update latest Performance Results
- Not Conducted as an Audit

Products of the Site Visit

- Site Visit Report for the Judges
- Feedback Report for the Applicant
  - No feedback provided during the site visit
  - Written reports distributed at the end of March

What's Next?

Congratulations!

You have completed the Site Visit stage of the Texas Award for Performance Excellence assessment process.

Here's what to expect next...

Next Steps

- Judges meet for review, February 24, 2014
- Judges' recommendations given to Quality Texas staff for due diligence determination
- Recipients contacted by Board of Directors on March 6, 2014
- Texas Award Presentation Banquet on June 23rd and the Texas Quest for Excellence Conference on June 22-24, 2014

Feedback Report

- No feedback at this time
- Feedback reports distributed by the end of March will include:
  - Executive Summary reflecting Key Themes
  - Pareto Charts reflecting Scores
  - Scoring Band Descriptors
  - Radar Charts reflecting Scoring Bands
  - Category Strengths and Opportunities for Improvement
  - Strengths and Opportunities for Improvement by Item
- Purpose of the feedback is to help prioritize and plan next steps for improvement

Recognition for your participation...

The Quality Texas Foundation
Texas Award for Performance Excellence
Presentation Ceremony

June 23, 2014

We invite you to attend...

The Texas Quest for Excellence Conference

June 23-24, 2014

Thank you for your effort during the award process and for your on-going commitment to excellence.