Advisee and Advisor Responsibilities

The Alamo Colleges District-St. Philip's College will provide every student with an exemplary, effective and personalized pathway to success through academic and career advising. At the Alamo Colleges District-SPC, academic and career advising builds a culture of integrated practices and shared responsibilities.

Alamo Colleges District-SPC is committed to providing quality academic advising and information about available resources to support you with achieving your desired educational goal. We will guide and support your completion of a certificate and/or associate degree and transition to a four year institution or entry into the workforce.

To get the most out of your advising session, as a student, you are responsible to:

- Visit with your Certified Academic Advisor.
 - Bring your advising SPC folder with all necessary materials and paperwork for all sessions.
 - Read all of your emails in ACES. This is the official communication method from the Alamo Colleges District-SPC for students.
 - Meet critical deadlines for registration, financial aid and payment deadlines, add/drops, and application for completing your degree and/or certificate.
 - Be prepared to discuss goals and educational plans. Ask questions if something is not clear or you have a concern
 - Be open and willing to consider all options and recommendations.
 - Be an engaged and active learner in your educational journey.
 - Inform your Certified Academic Advisor of important changes that directly affect your academic performance and educational goals.
 - Schedule your advising appointment early in the semester.
 - Be courteous and respectful at all times.
- Learn about academic programs and resources.
- Understand the importance of ethical decision-making in your academic experience.
- Commit to an academic plan that supports certificate and/or degree completion and/or successful transfer. Commit to Completion.
- Understand the importance of your degree plan as it pertains to non-accredited course work for completion.
- Be familiar with and abide by the Alamo Colleges District-SPC Student Code of Conduct
- Be proactive and monitor your academic progress in Alamo GPS via your ACES account.

As your Certified Academic Advisor, my commitment to you is to:

- Understand and effectively communicate the college's policies, core requirements, curriculum and certificate and/or degree requirements.
- Assist you with course selection based on educational and career goals.
- Encourage and guide you to define clear and realistic educational plans using your Alamo GPS.
- Ensure that you are part of the decision-making process, provide and understand your next steps.
- Provide you an advising form with a checklist
- Provide you with referrals when necessary.
- Listen carefully to your questions and concerns.
- Monitor and accurately document your academic progress.
- Maintain confidentiality following Alamo Colleges District-SPC and Federal Education Right to Privacy Act FERPA regulations.

As your Certified Academic Advisor, I will not:

- Provide mental health counseling, but will make referrals, when necessary.
- Register you for your classes.
- Choose your career or your classes for you.
