St. Philip's College understands the sacrifices made by our Military and Veteran families in service to our country. In recognition, we honor them by designating specific course sections as Reserved for Military/Veteran/Dependent students. These courses provide priority registration for military and veteran families trying to complete their education goals around the demands and personal sacrifices made in the name of military service.

Civilian students may request consideration for enrollment for reserved courses and for courses offered on JBSA installations. At the discretion of the college, we will consider civilian students for enrollment depending upon time remaining in the enrollment period and spaces remaining in the course.

Joint Base San Antonio installation courses require a release of personal information for installation access and will adhere to the below, priority order established by the Department of Defense. Visit www.alamo.edu/reserved for more information

The Alamo Colleges District colleges are EOE. For special accommodations or an alternate format, contact (210) 486-2020.
