

TexShare Card Information for SPC Students, Faculty, and Staff

TexShare is a library program that encourages the sharing of resources between Texas libraries to offer a broader range of services to you, the library customer. It is a program administered by the Texas State Library and Archives Commission.

The TexShare Card Program allows registered users of participating TexShare libraries to use the card to borrow materials at other participating libraries. SPC issued cards will expire 2 weeks before the end of the current semester.

Many public, academic and other libraries participate in TexShare. Check to see if a Texas library near you participates in TexShare programs.

TexShare is meant to provide direct, personal access to materials that are not available at the SPC library. Patrons must be in "good standing" with the Alamo Colleges libraries in order to participate in the TexShare Card program.

Responsibilities of Borrowers:

- Present appropriate ID.
- Observe the regulations of the lending library.
- Return materials to the lending library.
- Materials cannot be returned to the SPC library. Pay fines or any other charges assessed by the lending library.
- Surrender the TexShare Card to TexShare staff if requested.

TexShare borrowers are responsible for any materials checked out with their card. Cards should not be loaned to others. Lost or stolen cards should be reported to the SPC Library Circulation desk immediately at 210-486-2555.

On campus students, please register at the library circulation desk. Off campus students, click here for the online registration form.
