Roy Arcos, Klarissa Basulto, Tamiya Dunn, Lesly Gonzalez, Arianna Hernandez, Ava Malone, Karen Montano, Aaron Moreno, Gemma Munoz, Mycal Munoz, Melanie Olmos, Kaylee Ortiz, Davina Pritchett and Montserrat Ochoa Rivera were all part of a June 1 pinning ceremony.

SPC student joins NASA Community College Aerospace program

St. Philip's College (SPC) Healthcare Technology Management student, Maricela Eslera, joins a highly competitive NASA Community College Aerospace Scholars (NCAS) Summer/Fall 2022 cohort. Maricela is the second St. Philip's College student selected for the program; Richard Garcia joined the program earlier this year. NCAS builds a diverse future STEM workforce by engaging two-year degree-seeking students in authentic learning experiences.

Performance Excellence

SPC Professor of history and humanities receives Teaching Excellence Award

St. Philip's College (SPC) Associate Professor of History and Humanities, Jack Nawrocki, recently received the St. Philip's College Teaching Excellence Award. The program recognizes individuals for their contributions to the college through excellence as educators.

SPC Mathematics professor named Piper Professor nominee

St. Philip's College (SPC) Mathematics professor, Matthew Hudock, has been named a Piper Professor nominee. The Minnie Stevens Piper Professor Award Foundation annually honors ten professors in Texas colleges and universities for outstanding achievement.

Principle-Centered Leadership
